DAVIS HOUSE

Monroe, Walton County, Georgia

Owner: Miss Mary Edwards, who occupied property.

Date of Erection: Approximately 1835.

Architect or Builder:

Present Condition: Fair. Additions have been made to the rear by enclosing original porch and adding a room extending toward and connected to kitchen by covered passage. The original center front porch has been extended on each side one story.

Number of Stories: Two. Faces Southwest.

Materials of Construction: Brick foundation. Wood floors. Exterior and interior walls wood and plaster. Roof metal.

Other Existing Records:

Additional Date: Original house unpainted, only one room deep. Brick kitchen separate in the rear. Gutter ^{added} 1845. Some of it may date back before that. Triglyphs of $\frac{1}{2}$ rounds. Wide board ceilings except in sitting room. Old mantels simple with herring bone reeding on sides. Wainscoting similar to Selman House. Wide board floors. Keys and locks original.

Owned by Judge Chas. Davie, who came from Vermont according to Mr. Percy Dowell. Some one owned before Judge Davie. John Priore, grandfather of Miss Edwards bought it she thinks from Davie estate between 1880-83.
